

TSVETKOV Valery Anatoljevich, Director, Market Economy Institute of RAS, Corresponding Member of RAS, Doctor of Sciences (Economics).

Graduated from Moscow Energetic Institute (1988). Defended his candidate of sciences thesis named «Financial-industrial business groups in the leverages' system of Russian economy's stabilization» in the Dissertation council of CEMI RAS (1997). Defended his doctor of sciences thesis named «Macroeconomic problems of financial-industrial business group's formation and development in Russia» in the Dissertation council of Market Economy Institute of RAS (2002).

From 2001 to January 12, 2014 – Deputy Director of Market Economy Institute of RAS on scientific activity. From November 20, 2014 – Deputy Director of Market Economy Institute of RAS.

Vice-president of Association of Russian financial-industrial business groups, laureate of Russian Science Support Foundation for the period 2002-2008 on the program «The best economists or Russian Academy of Science».

In 2008 was elected as corresponding member of RAS in the Section of social sciences.

He is a member of editorial boards of journals «Industrial policy in Russian Federation» and «Bulletin of Institute of Economics», deputy chairman of Commission on the work with young scientists of RAS, scientific secretary of Expert commission of RAS on evaluating young scientists' of RAS and young scientists' and students' research papers, deputy chairman of Market Economy Institute's of RAS Dissertation council. Professor of State University of Management, Peoples' Friendship University of Russia, Russian Presidential Academy of National Economy and Public Administration, Moscow State University. Author of more than 100 research papers. He was awarded a medal «In commemoration of Moscow's 850-year anniversary».

V.A. Tsvetkov is a highly qualified specialist in the field of economics and management of national economy. His scientific activity is connected with the study of theoretical problems of functioning and the general laws of conduct corporate structures, the study of their impact on the national economy and the dynamics of the main macroeconomic indicators in conditions of market economy.

V.A. Tsvetkov – the author of methods of analysis of Russian financial-industrial groups, included in the State Register of the Russian Federation.

Under his leadership:

- A comprehensive study of the theoretical and practical results of the officially registered financial-industrial groups in the period 1993-2002 gg. with scientists, including their impact on the national economy and the dynamics of the basic macroeconomic indicators;
- prepared recommendations on financial and industrial integration of the countries - participants of the CIS and the creation of inter-state enterprise unions, including the financial-industrial groups, holding companies, etc.;
- scientifically substantiated theoretical problems of functioning and the general regularities in behavior the corporate structure of the Russian economy;
- been offered variants of interaction with the state of corporate structures in the conditions of formation and functioning of a market economy;
- developed measures aimed at improving the organizational and structural framework of financial-industrial groups, increased investment activity and the sustainability of their operations.